

ECO-MEDIA

PROJECT REFERENCE: KA220-ADU-81D2BF47

3rd NEWSLETTER of the Eco-media project

November 2022

Start date: 01-12-2021 / End date: 01-12-2023

In a digitalized world, professionals should play a key role in guiding young people to engage in volunteering activities, as they represent the “bridge” between youth and active society.

Project's milestones:

- Descriptive map of community media approaches for digital youth work
- Curriculum on climate change
- Toolkit in the scope of climate change
- ECO-Media e-learning platform

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Achievements of the consortium”

Finalization of the Descriptive map of community media approaches for digital youth work

Partners worked hard through the first months of the implementation of the project and successfully completed the first Result of the project. One consolidated report on the Community Media, a database of Community Media, a catalogue of Best Practices, and a Paper Brochure have been developed within the first result of the project.

Partners Consortium Meeting in November

The consortium of the project met in Padua, Italy in November and through a hybrid meeting, discussed the project deliverables, the achieved objectives, and the upcoming steps. In a collaborative atmosphere, the partners finalized the Map of Community Media and set the steps for the next two deliverables which are about to be completed during the first six months of 2023. Finally, the partners decided on the dates for the next transnational meeting in 2023 which will be realized in Vienna, Austria.

Visit our Website, Facebook and Instagram page to stay up to date with all project news!

PARTNERS

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.